Republican Primary.

The Republican primary held at the Garland School house last Wednesday evening was a well attended and spirited meeting. Precinct chairman H. C. Vanausdalen called the meeting to order and stated that the object of the primary was to choose seven delegates to attend the county convention to be held in Brigham City Saturday, October 13th. Moseiah Evans was chosen temporary chairman and Jos Jensen temporary secretary.

The chairman at once announced that nominations for delegates were in order. F. D. Welling, W. R. Vanfleet and H. C. Vanausdalen were nominated for delegate No. 1 to be voted for by ballot. C. Haws and O. L. Winters were appointed tellers. Before the ballots were taken up, however, a motion was made to suspend the rules and vote for the three above named gentlemen by acclamation as delegates No. 1, 2 and 3. The motion was carried.

W. D. Lewis, Burdett Smith, O. L. Winters and T. E. Secrist were chosen in the same manner as the other three delegates. The following ladies were named as alternates: Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, Mrs. Jos Jensen, Mrs. Moseiah Evans and Mrs. Burdett Smith.

Next in order was the naming of a precinct justice. H. C. Vanausdalen and Peter Jensen were nominated and voted for by ballot. The result was as follows: Vanausdalen 19, Jensen 10.

Only one nomination was made for precinct constable T. E. Secrist being chosen by acclamation.

Jos Jensen was then named as precinct chairman and also county central committeeman. F. D. Welling was nominated for the latter position but the result of the ballots cast were Jensen 21, Welling 4.

Moseiah Evans, who has been the county central committeeman for some time past, and H. C. Vanausdalen, who has filled the position of precinct chairman, were given a hearty vote of thanks for their services rendered.

A motion to adjourn was made and carried.

Died of Diphtheria.

Miss Verna Jensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jensen of this city, aged 8 years, 6 months and 28 days, died Thursday at 4 a. m. from the effects of diphtheria. She took sick the latter part of last week and Monday the residence was quarantined. Dr. Francke had the case in charge and did all in his power to save her. Wednesday he gave up all hope of her recovery and Dr. Harding of Brigham City was summoned. He stated that Dr. Francke had done all that was possible to be done for her.

Dr. Francke was at her bedside when she died.

The home under quarantine and relatives and friends not allowed to enter, made it necessary for the parents to wash and lay out their loving daughter, which was indeed a heart-rendering trial.

Mrs. Peter Jensen, grand-mother of the deceased, came here from Mantua as soon as she was notified of the death and assisted in dressing the child for burial.

A number of friends and neighbors of the family rendered assistance in making the burial clothes. Numerous and beautiful bouquets of flowers were sent to the residence by sympathizing friends.

The remains were taken from the residence early yesterday morning by the undertaker and interred in the city cemetery, the sad feature being that no services could be held owing to the death being from a contagious disease.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved parents in this their hour of trial.

Pleasant Social.

Last Saturday evening the Misses Essie and Hazel Evans entertained a number of young people at their home in this city. A very elaborate luncheon was served. Sweet peas were the decorations, which gave a very artistic appearance. After supper a musical program was enjoyed until a late hour. All expressed themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening.

Those present were:

Messrs Charlie Welling, Leslie Grover, David Foulger, Lawrence Smith, Wright Evans, Howard Evans, the Misses Sarah Fowler, Mahala Gann, Mary Grover, Grace Harding, Julia M. Strong, Agnes Austin, Barbara Waulass, Hazel Evans, Essie Evans and Mrs. M. D. Evans.

Wounds, Bruises and Burns.

By applying an antiseptic dressing to wounds, bruises, burns and like injuries before inflammation sets in, they may be healed without maturation and in about one-third the time required by the old treatment. This is the greatest discovery and triumph of modern surgery. Chamberlain's Pain Balm acts on this same principle. It is an antiseptic and when applied to such injuries, causes them to heal very quickly. It also allays the pain and soreness and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. Keep a bottle of Pain Balm in your home and it will save you time and money, not to mention the inconvenience and suffering such injuries entail. For sale by Ritter Bros. Drug Co.

—WHERE YOU GET THE BEST—

Bosh in Boxelder.

It is a pleasure to note that the somewhat revered A. T. Rankin of Box Elder has wriggled to the surface for his biennial pat on the head. For twenty two months the same Reverend Rankin dubs about in the oblivion of professional occupation, where his lack of talents prevents his attracting any attention, and then for about sixty days he lives in the glare of the political footlights, where his soul can sense the jubilant uplift of the beer-laden censors of a bridge of bums.

The somewhat revered Rankin lives in the fair city of Brigham, although the town is in no wise to blame for that.

And as a resident of Brigham he attended and largely composed the Amerikans convention which disported itself Oct. 5. When the campaign is over the somewhat revered Rankin will go back to a better occupation, the attempt to save the souls he has been helping to dam through the hurly-burly of autumn.

and will carry the clothes which reek of the stench of sin, and bear the borrowed perfume his brothel companions have brought from their department of the Tom Kearns following—"the wicked stench of the harlot's room," as happy old John Antrobus states the case.

Assisting the somewhat revered Rankin was one B. H. Jones, a logician of the Amerikans stripe. Jones won the position of state committeeman for the Kearns party, and so has an influence in the state commensurate with his importance as a man.

It may be cruel, but it is fair, to call to the attention of the said Jones a sample of his own logic. In the course of the speech which won him the place of committeeman he said: "The church has had its steering committee dictating the laws which should be enacted." And a little farther along: "On the twenty-sixth of last September every Mormon was begged to vote as a unit—begged to vote as Senator Smoot desired."

Aside from the absolute falsehood of both statements, let us remind the said Jones that people who can dictate do not have to beg. If they beg, they do not dictate. When they beg, they are not to be feared.

One way or the other the said Jones is a liar; and it doesn't make much difference which statement he confesses is a lie. Neither is true.

And, least the said Jones should think he gets off easy by having only two of his lies nailed, let us direct his vagrant attention to one more, in the course of a seven-minute talk. He said: "The senate committee on privileges and elections has decided that a union of church and state exists in the state of Utah."

That isn't true. But it is typical.

We submit to the good people of Brigham that they can not be much benefited by the leadership of men of that type.

Church dictation in politics is to be deprecated—whether by the Mormons, or by the somewhat revered Rankin.

And liars are dangerous guides—always.—Inter-Mountain Republican.
